

MOBILITY EXCHANGE PROGRAMME FOR MASTER STUDENTS
OF THE FOREIGN LANGUAGES DEPARTMENT

The Foreign Languages Department of Ogarev Mordovia State University opens the competition for the programme of academic mobility with Transilvania University of Brasov, Romania for the spring semester 2016.

Transilvania University (UTBv) is a state institution of higher education located in Brasov, Romania, and by its educational offer, scientific research and number of students represents one of Romania's large universities. The University includes 18 faculties with a total of about 20 000 students and 800 teaching staff. The University offers 100 full time, part time and distance learning bachelor's study programmes and 66 advanced studies or scientific research master's programmes as well as 17 fields are available for doctoral studies.

For more detailed information see:

<http://www.unitbv.ro/Portals/34/University%20brochure%2014-15.pdf>

The language of instruction: English

To participate in the competition the candidates are required to provide the following information:

- Motivation letter that should contain your arguments for your participation in the exchange programme;
- CV which includes the information of the languages spoken, level of their proficiency, articles published, topics of academic research (of your MA thesis);
- a letter of reference from the Head of your MA programme, with the confirmation of your English language proficiency.

Please, note that you must have a valid international passport.

Students will receive monthly payment of 750 euro and 350 euro for travel.

Please, submit your papers to the following email: olga.safonkina@gmail.com

THE DEADLINE IS JANUARY 15, 2016